adverbs - Is the phrase 'the best out of bests' correct? - English Quite commonly used in India, the phrase "the best out of bests" is claimed to denote that you get something that is unmatched and of above-all quality. However, I avoid using this most of the definite article - I think a/the best friend is a/the person - English The response is defining "a" (unknown, unspecified) best friend, not a specific one (contrast with "the best friend I had in high school", for example). If the second article was

"I did my best to do something" or "I did my best doing something"? I wonder which case the gerund or infinitive is (more) appropriate here: "I did my best to do something" or "I did my best doing something"?

word order - Which is correct 'suits your needs the best' or 'best' 4 Either is fine, but (American here) I think "Something that best suits your needs" would be the most common way of saying it articles - "it is best" vs. "it is the best" - English Language The word "best" is an adjective, and adjectives do not take articles by themselves. Because the noun car is modified by the superlative adjective best, and because this makes definite article - "Most" "best" with or without "the" - English I mean here "You are the best at tennis" "and "you are best at tennis", "choose the book you like the best or best" both of them can have different meanings but "most" and valediction - Does "Bests" mean "Best regards" in emails? - English One of my colleagues (not a native English speaker) always ends his emails like this: Bests Mike I guess he means Best regards with Bests. Could someone help explain?

how to use "best" as adverb? - English Language Learners Stack 1 Your example already shows how to use "best" as an adverb. It is also a superlative, like "greatest", or "highest", so just as you would use it as an adjective to show that something is
