Understanding these factors can provide valuable insights for your business plan.

Industry Overview

The car rental industry is a multi-billion dollar sector that caters to a diverse clientele, including tourists, business travelers, and local residents. The demand for car rentals is influenced by tourism trends, business travel, and urbanization. Market Trends

Several trends are shaping the car rental market, including:

car rental company business plan: Zipcar and Streetcar Great Britain: Competition Commission, 2012-05-21 This report formally clears Zipcar Inc's completed acquisition of rival car club Streetcar Limited. The CC has concluded that other companies are likely to enter and expand into this rapidly growing market, and that such competition will counter the danger of the merged company being able to raise prices or worsen its services to customers. The acquisition, which was completed in April 2010, brings together Streetcar, the largest car club in London, and Zipcar, the second largest. Car club members pay an annual membership fee and are able to hire cars by the hour picking up the vehicle from convenient nearby locations, using the flexibility offered by smart card technology and online and mobile booking tools. The Office of Fair Trading (OFT) referred the case to the CC in August for the CC to decide whether the acquisition may be expected to result in a substantial lessening of competition within any market or markets in the UK, including the supply of car club services in London.

car rental company business plan: You're Only as Good as Your Next One Mike Medavoy, 2013-06-25 "An under-read and engaging show-biz memoir." –The New Yorker If I had a talent for anything, it was a talent for knowing who was talented. Mike Medavoy is a Hollywood rarity: a studio executive who, though never far from controversy, has remained well loved and respected through four decades of moviemaking. What further sets him apart is his role in bringing to the screen some of the most acclaimed Oscar-winning films of our time: Apocalypse Now, One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest, Amadeus, The Silence of the Lambs, Philadelphia, and Sleepless in Seattle are just some of the projects he green-lighted at United Artists, Orion, TriStar, his own Phoenix Pictures. The ultimate lose-lose situation for a studio executive: to wind up with a commercial bomb and a bad movie. Of course, there are the box office disasters, and the films, as Medavoy says, for which I should be shot. They, too, have a place in his fascinating memoir -- a pull-no-punches account of financial and political maneuvering, and of working with the industry's brightest star power, including Steven Spielberg, Martin Scorsese, Francis Ford Coppola, Kevin Costner, Robert De Niro, Jodie Foster, Sharon Stone, Michael Douglas, Meg Ryan, and countless others. Putting together the elements of a film is a succession of best guesses. Medavoy speaks out on how movie studio buyouts have stymied the creative process and brought an end to the hands-off golden age of filmmaking. An eyewitness to Hollywood history in the making, he gives a powerful and poignant view of the past and future of a world he knows intimately.
