travel planner business: Say No without Feeling Guilty & still Negotiate Successfully

Simone Janson, 2025-02-27 Also in the 7th revised and improved edition, published by a government-funded publisher involved in EU programs and a partner of the Federal Ministry of Education, you receive the concentrated expertise of renowned experts (overview in the book preview), embedded in an integrated knowledge system with premium content and 75% advantage. At the same time, you do good and support sustainable projects. Because as the saying goes: Everybodies Darling, Everybodies Depp. Or also: If you want to please everybody, you put yourself in the wrong. Everybody knows that, but in important situations many people don't succeed in simply saying no. Often, the fear of social devaluation or sanctions, false politeness, too high demands on oneself or feelings of guilt are behind it. It is precisely these negative feelings that can become problematic in a negotiation, especially when it is particularly important to assert one's own position as uncompromisingly as possible. This book helps here by pointing out causes and suggesting possible solutions. With its integrated knowledge system and Info on Demand concept, the publisher not only participated in an EU-funded program but was also awarded the Global Business Award as Publisher of the Year. Therefore, by purchasing this book, you are also doing good: The publisher is financially and personally involved in socially relevant projects such as tree planting campaigns, the establishment of scholarships, sustainable innovations, and many other ideas. At the same time, you do good and support sustainable projects. Because hand on heart, it is often difficult for us to make good and correct decisions because we ourselves have no idea what we want in the first place. The reasons for this are many and varied: we often lack the time to think and weigh things up. Not infrequently, we lack important information? And sometimes we are simply not in the right mood.
