amsco us history review: Grandpa's Us Colonial History to 1800 Terrence Hagen, 2013-02-28

Did the American people suddenly become independent on July 4, 1776, or is there something more to our shared history? History books tend to simplify the events leading up to the Declaration of Independence, but not Grandpa! Terrence Hagen wants his grandchildren and everyone else to know exactly what happened from the founding of Jamestown in 1607 to the time the Founding Fathers broke free from England. The reality is the real America was developed in that period between the founding of the first settlements to the Declaration of Independence. In this history book, you'll learn why America could be called an accident; self-government was not discovered by America; colonial America was the result of concurrent conflict among many entities; and subsequent immigration of non-English settlers changed the nature of the American colonist and produced ethnic, religious, and cultural conflicts. Laced with chapter summaries, quizzes, and stories of sacrifice, Grandpa's US Colonial History to 1800 tells the forgotten history of how the American Revolution was fought not to attain independence but to retain the level of independence early settlers enjoyed.

amsco us history review: Lefty's Journey Ralph DeFalco, 2011-11-22 When Ralph arrived at the row house in the South Bronx, he had to step back as his family made their way up the steps. They started to creak as they carried their luggage, and all that went through his mind was that they would collapse if he also climbed those steps. Where he came from, all the steps were made of either marble or granite. How in the world would these wooden stairs hold up? Ralph had been surrounded by the unpolluted blue Mediterranean that reflected the ever present blue sky. If the temperature became too hot, he cooled off in that blue water to his heart's content. Now, in the bowels of the South Bronx, the only thing that turned blue was his demeanor. His only relief from the stifling summer heat, along with some of the boys from the neighborhood, would be to illegally open a fire hydrant when the police were not around.
