Travers, 2014 Desde fines de la Segunda Guerra Mundial hasta mediados de los sesenta, en la arquitectura americana sucedieron cosas muy excitantes, como el hecho de que los nuevos talentos emergentes se focalizaran en innovadores proyectos de materiales de bajo coste con un diseño moderno. Esta tendencia la encarnaba a la perfección el famoso programa Case Study House, un proyecto abanderado por la revista americana más importante del momento, Arts & Architecture. TASCHEN publicó en 2008 una versión facsímil completa de la ambiciosa y rompedora Arts & Architecture en una edición limitada. Esta nueva selección —dirigida y producida por Benedikt Taschen— reúne todas las portadas y lo más significativo de los primeros cinco años de la legendaria revista, prestando especial atención al programa Case Study House y sus célebres arquitectos pioneros, como Neutra, Schindler, Saarinen, Ellwood, Lautner, Eames y Koenig. Un homenaje a los primeros y valientes años de una publicación comprometida con la política, la sociedad y la cultura de su tiempo, esta selección especial es también testigo de uno de los eventos más singulares e influyentes en la historia de la arquitectura norteamericana.

arts and architecture magazines: Dada Magazines Emily Hage, 2020-12-24 Dada magazines made Dada what it was: diverse, non-hierarchical, transnational, and defiant of the most fundamental artistic conventions. This first volume entirely devoted to Dada periodicals retells the story of Dada by demonstrating the centrality of these graphically inventive, provocative periodicals: Dada, New York Dada, Dada Jok, and dozens more that began crossing enemy lines during World War I. The book includes magazines from well-known Dada cities like New York and Paris as well as Zagreb and Bucharest, and reveals that Dada continued to inspire art journals into the 1920s. Anchored in close material analysis within a historical and theoretical framework, Dada Magazines models a novel, multifaceted methodology for assessing many kinds of periodicals. The book traces how the Dadaists-Marcel Duchamp, Tristan Tzara, Dragan Aleksic, Hannah Höch, and many others-compiled, printed, distributed, and exchanged these publications. At the same time, it recognizes the journals as active agents that engendered the Dada network, and its thematic, chronological structure captures the constant exchanges that took place in this network. With in-depth scrutiny of these magazines-and 1970s "Dadazines" inspired by them-Dada Magazines is a vital source in the histories of art and design, periodical studies, and modernist studies.
