black tail magazine videos: Angels Hour Tom Renz, 2008-12 Angels Hour tells of a recovering alcoholic's therapy with a suicidal adolescent female. Steven Renaldi, age 40, is two years sober and employed as a clinical therapist at a mental health agency. Jackie Sorrentino, age 17, is referred to the agency after a suicide attempt. The novel is structured in such a fashion as to demonstrate the parallels between the therapeutic process and the hero's journey, as outlined in Joseph Campbell's, The Hero With a Thousand Faces. The central theme of the novel is that a good life must be earned. Jackie initially responds to The Call to Adventure with resistance. She is confrontational and often resorts to intellectualization as a means to thwart Steven's clinical interventions. Crossing The Threshold is the next stage of Jackie's therapy. Here she begins to uncover unconscious memories. They are of such trauma that a second suicide attempt occurs. When Jackie ventures Beyond The Watcher in her therapy, she experiences a level of psychic unease that results in several cancelled sessions. Dream analysis becomes an integral part of therapy. Entering The Belly Of The Whale, Jackie becomes immersed in unconscious energy that yields clues to childhood mysteries. The Road Of Trials is the stage of Jackie's therapy where the work of processing losses in her life commences. More clues are revealed. A precipice in therapy is reached when Jackie faces her Dark Satori, the secret of her past. She must now decide what to do with this knowledge. Jackie's therapeutic journey ends and she achieves A Freedom To Live by moving beyond loss and into new adventures. A subtext of the novel is Steven's own journey. His gradual ascension from sarcastic, struggling alcoholic to one who can see the beauty and wonder of life is illustrated in chapters alternating with Jackie's journey. The author is fifty- four years old. He possesses a B.A. in psychology and an M.A. in Child Development. He has been employed as a clinical social worker for the past twenty- five years, specializing in the treatment of adolescents and their families. He is the author of The Tao of Creative Caddying.

Right (To Party)? Axl Rose step off the bus in Welcome to the Jungle? It was a pretty radical idea—a channel for teenagers, showing nothing but music videos. It was such a radical idea that almost no one thought it would actually succeed, much less become a force in the worlds of music, television, film, fashion, sports, and even politics. But it did work. MTV became more than anyone had ever imagined. I Want My MTV tells the story of the first decade of MTV, the golden era when MTV's programming was all videos, all the time, and kids watched religiously to see their favorite bands, learn about new music, and have something to talk about at parties. From its start in 1981 with a small cache of videos by mostly unknown British new wave acts to the launch of the reality-television craze with The Real World in 1992, MTV grew into a tastemaker, a career maker, and a mammoth business. Featuring interviews with nearly four hundred artists, directors, VJs, and television and music executives, I Want My MTV is a testament to the channel that changed popular culture forever.
