Faith and Discipleship in Dietrich Bonhoeffer Quotes

Dietrich Bonhoeffer's theology centers on authentic faith expressed through action. His quotes on faith and discipleship emphasize the cost of following Christ and the call to live out beliefs with conviction. Bonhoeffer viewed faith not as passive belief but as active obedience and sacrifice.

The Cost of Discipleship

One of Bonhoeffer's most famous ideas is that discipleship demands a willingness to suffer and even die for one's beliefs. He asserted that cheap grace—grace without the cross—is insufficient. His quotes challenge believers to embrace costly grace, which requires true commitment and transformation.

Faith as Action

Bonhoeffer's emphasis on faith manifesting in deeds is evident in his quotes encouraging believers to live their beliefs courageously. He believed that faith without works is incomplete and that genuine discipleship means active participation in God's work in the world.

- "When Christ calls a man, he bids him come and die."
- "Cheap grace is the grace we bestow on ourselves."
- "The church is the church only when it exists for others."

Courage and Resistance in Bonhoeffer's Words

Dietrich Bonhoeffer's legacy as a resistor of Nazi tyranny is reflected in his powerful quotes on courage and standing firm in the face of evil. His writings inspire moral bravery and the responsibility to oppose injustice, even at great personal risk.

Standing Against Injustice

Bonhoeffer believed that silence in the face of wrongdoing is complicity. His quotes urge individuals to act with courage and integrity, highlighting the ethical imperative to resist oppression and tyranny.

Faith as a Source of Courage

For Bonhoeffer, true courage stems from faith in God rather than reliance on human strength. His quotes often link spiritual conviction with the bravery necessary to confront moral challenges.

- "Silence in the face of evil is itself evil."
- "Action springs not from thought, but from a readiness for responsibility."
- "Only the person who is capable of obedience and therefore of suffering is capable of true prayer."

Community and Humility According to Bonhoeffer

Bonhoeffer's reflections on community and humility reveal his belief in the importance of living in genuine fellowship and embracing a humble spirit. His quotes emphasize the role of the church as a supportive, selfless body of believers.

The Role of Christian Community

According to Bonhoeffer, the church is called to be a community that serves others and reflects Christ's love. His quotes challenge believers to prioritize collective well-being over individualism and to bear one another's burdens.

The Power of Humility

Humility plays a central role in Bonhoeffer's theology. His quotes highlight humility as essential for true discipleship and for fostering authentic relationships within the community of faith.

- "Humility is the foundation of all the other virtues."
- "The ultimate test of a moral society is the kind of world that it leaves to its children."
- "The church is the church only when it exists for others."

Suffering, Grace, and Redemption in Bonhoeffer's Quotes

Suffering and grace are intertwined themes in Bonhoeffer's thought. His quotes explore how suffering can lead to spiritual growth and how grace offers redemption despite human weakness and failure.

The Meaning of Suffering

Bonhoeffer viewed suffering as a necessary part of Christian life, often linking it to participation in Christ's suffering. His quotes provide insight into embracing suffering as a means to deeper faith and transformation.

Grace and Redemption

Grace, for Bonhoeffer, is not cheap but costly. His quotes discuss the profound nature of divine grace that demands repentance and change, leading ultimately to redemption and hope.

- "Grief is the agony of an instant; the indulgence in grief the blasphemy of the eternal."

- "We must learn to regard people less in the light of what they do or omit to do, and more in the light of what they suffer."
- "Being a Christian is less about cautiously avoiding sin than about courageously and actively doing God's will."

dietrich bonhoeffer quotes: The Battle for Bonhoeffer Stephen R. Haynes, 2018-09-13 The figure of Dietrich Bonhoeffer (1906–1945) has become a clay puppet in modern American politics. A recognized Bonhoeffer expert, Haynes examines "populist" readings of Bonhoeffer, including the acclaimed biography by Eric Metaxas, Bonhoeffer: Pastor, Martyr, Prophet, Spy. In his analysis Haynes treats, among other things, the November 2016 election of Donald Trump and the "Bonhoeffer moment" announced by evangelicals in response to the US Supreme Court's 2015 decision to legalize same-sex marriage. The Battle for Bonhoeffer includes an open letter from Haynes pointedly addressing Christians who still support Trump. dietrich bonhoeffer quotes: Dietrich Bonhoeffer and a Theology of the Exception Kevin O'Farrell, 2023-11-30 Engaging with the many debates about the meaning and character of Bonhoeffer's late resistance theology and action, particularly as it relates to his participation in the attempted coup d'état against Hitler, this book attends to Bonhoeffer's understanding of the exception. Resisting the common reduction of the exception to a political or ethical concept, O'Farrell argues that the exception for Bonhoeffer is an extraordinary moment in history that disarms persons, impinging on one's understanding of politics and ethics. Through a wide engagement with the Bonhoeffer corpus, this book claims that this leads to distinctive narrations of key concepts in Bonhoeffer's corpus: responsibility, the free venture, simple obedience, and action beyond the law. It also offers a different portrait of Bonhoeffer to contemporary narrations. The Bonhoeffer that emerges is neither a Niebuhrian realist, a pacifist, or a religious fanatic, but one who is impelled to act apart from the law without this action becoming arbitrary. This Bonhoeffer provides a hopeful political witness that seeks a world beyond the conflicts and divisions of this age.

dietrich bonhoeffer quotes: Human Subjectivity 'in Christ' in Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Theology Jacob Phillips, 2019-09-19 Jacob Phillips presents a critical study of a neglected aspect of Dietrich Bonhoeffer's theology: his writing on human subjectivity, self-reflection, and individual identity 'in Christ'. In response to the rise of chronic self-representation through digital technology, Phillips argues that Bonhoeffer presents a radical challenge, maintaining that – from the perspective of Christian theology - there is something deeply negative about beholding representations of oneself. Bonhoeffer instead holds that discipleship means adopting a posture of radical agnosticism toward one's own identity. Phillips focuses on the interrelation of 'simplicity' and 'reflection' in theological cognition and ethical deliberation, showing a wider significance in contemporary theological anthropology, soteriology and ethics. By following the tradition of reading Bonhoeffer in relation to the philosophical sources, such as Wüstenberg , Janz, Whitson-Floyd, Marsh, Zimmermann, Gregor, Phillips highlights the ways in which Bonhoeffer's work relates to modern debates in epistemology and ethics generally, and that of Wilhelm Dilthey and hermeneutical phenomenology in particular. This volume offers a detailed theological analysis of the themes of self-identity, human subjectivity, and self-understanding, which are highly pertinent for contemporary society.

dietrich bonhoeffer quotes: Holy Disunity Layton E. Williams, 2019-10-08 These days, there's no dirtier word than "divisive," especially in religious and political circles. Claiming a controversial opinion, talking about our differences, even sharing our doubts can be seen as threatening to the goal of unity. But what if unity shouldn't be our goal? In Holy Disunity: How What Separates Us Can Save Us, Layton E. Williams proposes that our primary calling as humans is not to create unity but rather to seek authentic relationship with God, ourselves, one another, and the world around us. And that means actively engaging those with whom we disagree. Our religious, political, social, and cultural differences can create doubt and tension, but disunity also provides surprising gifts of perspective and grace. By analyzing conflict and rifts in both modern culture and Scripture, Williams explores how our disagreements and differences—our disunity—can ultimately redeem us.

dietrich bonhoeffer quotes: Why Did Jesus, Moses, the Buddha, and Mohammed Cross the Road? Brian D. McLaren, 2012-09-11 When four religious leaders walk across the road, it's not the beginning of a joke. It's the start of one of the most important conversations in today's world. Can you be a committed Christian without having to condemn or convert people of other faiths? Is it possible to affirm other religious traditions without watering down your own? In his most important book yet, widely acclaimed author and speaker Brian McLaren proposes a new faith alternative, one built on benevolence and solidarity rather than rivalry and hostility. This way of being Christian is strong but doesn't strong-arm anyone, going beyond mere tolerance to vigorous hospitality toward, interest in, and collaboration with the other. Blending history, narrative, and brilliant insight, McLaren shows readers step-by-step how to reclaim this strong-benevolent faith, challenging us to stop creating barriers in the name of God and learn how affirming other religions can strengthen our commitment to our own. And in doing so, he invites Christians to become more Christ-like than ever before.

dietrich bonhoeffer quotes: Moral Warriors, Moral Wounds Wollom A. Jensen, James M. Childs Jr., 2016-05-19 The experience of Wollom Jensen's distinguished career in military service and James Childs's long and productive career in the fields of theology and ethics combine to bring Christian ethics into dialogue with the harsh realities of military service in today's world of war. The authors seek to correlate the ethics of neighbor love with the vocation of the chaplaincy, the framework of just war theory, the published values of the military services, and sample issues such as the challenge of pluralism for the chaplaincy, drone warfare, interrogation practices, and truth-telling. Special emphasis is placed on the reality of moral injury and the moral obligation of society and the churches to respond to the needs of these wounded warriors. The book espouses the view that the Christian ethic, more than a set of principles, is a true ministry to those who struggle to be faithful and fear that they have not been.

dietrich bonhoeffer quotes: No Authority Except from God John Pistorius, 2021-10-13 It is written that a ruler will emerge to rule the entire world and place all into submission. Nobody will be able to buy or sell anything without being marked by this ruler. In turbulent times, everyone must understand the source of all authority and the biblical grounds of obedience and submission to human authorities. This book combines biblical evidence with historical records and personal experience to shine light on the truth about obeying and submitting to human powers. As you read, you'll get answers to questions like: • Must we surrender our beliefs, our faith, and our moral ground to human authorities? • What does God say about submitting to human authorities? • What does the Bible tell us about the leader that will take control during the end times? • How can those in authority use their power to properly honor Him? Even now, as the world has been besieged by a new virus strain, God's people must weigh every order and mandate with biblical truth. The enemy of souls will twist the truth to suit his own agenda. As we respond, we must trust in God's Word and remember there is No Authority Except From God.
