Forty years of study, reflection, interaction, and teaching has developed a perspective that, though not original in any single point, is unique as each individual is unique. michael pearl ministry: Eight Kingdoms Michael Pearl, 2006 There are eight types of kingdoms mentioned in the Bible. Two of those kingdoms-the kingdom of God and the kingdom of heaven-constitute the central message of the New Testament. If all the text that speaks directly of these two kingdoms were removed from the New Testament, there wouldn't be enough left to fill up a single page in the newspaper. Yet the kingdom message is completely unknown by a large majority of ministers and their congregations all across this land. There has never been anything spoken so much, yet understood so little. The errors of reformed theology and Armenianism alike are rooted in a misunderstanding of the kingdoms. Most cults, and many of the denominational differences today, can be traced to a lack of understanding of the mystery of the kingdoms. The key to understanding the entire Bible is found in knowing the differences among the eight kingdoms, but especially these two-the kingdom of God and the kingdom of heaven. When readers finish reading this book, they will assuredly know the difference.

michael pearl ministry: Romans 1-8 Verse by Verse Michael Pearl, 2009-08-26 This commentary is not devotional in tone. It addresses all the hard theological issues that have been the foundation of the Christian faith down through the centuries. It is written in the common language of the layman, with a careful word-for-word examination of every phrase. Though controversial interpretations are supported by analyses of the Greek language, it is written from the perspective of a King James Bible believer.

michael pearl ministry: Understanding the Book of Hebrews Michael Pearl, 2021-09 A Word-by-Word Commentary on the most thorough discussion of faith found in the Bible. God, as salesman of the truth, takes the responsibility to present himself in a way that causes you to know your need of him, believe his promises, and forsaking all others take him only. If you look at your faith you will look in vain. If you look to him, knowing you have insufficient faith, and you do not consider your faith or the lack thereof, he will receive you as you are, having less faith than a grain of finely ground pepper. He will then call you his own. Then your faith is not in your faith; it is in his faithfulness. Then you have entered the world of biblical faith--all praise to him and no brag on our part.

michael pearl ministry: The Bible on Divorce and Remarriage Michael Pearl, 2015-10 Historically, Christians have been divided on the issue of divorce and remarriage; many institutions and theologies coming down on the side that it is adultery to remarry while one's former spouse is still alive. This is consistent with the words of Jesus in Matthew and the words of the Apostle Paul in Romans. Others stand by the words of Paul in 1 Corinthians where he clearly declares that it is not a sin to marry again if you were put away (abandoned or divorced) by an unbelieving spouse. There seems to be a conflict in Scripture regarding divorce and remarriage. You do not have to pick a side to the exclusion of the other. There is a marvelous harmony in the Word of God. In this book you will see Scripture in all of its glorious consistency, and you will appreciate the divine logic. The subjects of divorce, remarriage and adultery have confused both Christians and their pastors alike. In this thorough exegesis of all the Bible texts concerning divorce and remarriage, Michael Pearl answers these issues with the Word of God, revealing the perfect harmony in Scripture and God's divine plan for marriage. This is not a lecture or a diatribe against those who are divorced. If you are a pastor or counselor you will find this book to be a great tool to instruct those who are troubled by this subject.

michael pearl ministry: Who Is the Antichrist? Michael Pearl, 2016-03-08 God tells us in II Thessalonians chapter two that he is sending a GREAT DELUSION, that they shall believe a lie. The delusion is concerning the Antichrist. Will YOU be among the deceived? Most people that have heard about the soon coming Antichrist have only heard what some preacher or writer thinks he will be like and it is all misinformation. Thus the vast majority of Christendom has a completely wrong picture of the Antichrist. The Bible clearly describes this coming world leader. No one should be deceived, but they will be and God will help with the deception by sending a delusion. Today the Muslims are feverishly working toward bringing back their Messiah. They are religiously trying to set the stage for the glorious end. It is no secret that all that is going on is for this reason. And Muslims are not alone. Jewish rabbis are calling their people home to Israel because they are excited that the Messiah's coming is eminent. Some internationally known Rabbis have personally had a supernatural visitation indicating that their Messiah is soon to come. And Christians all over the world are looking with great interest into end time events because they all know that the end is upon us. The stage has been set. The three major religions of the world are all posed for HIM. And when he comes it will not be Jesus, but the Antichrist posing as Christ and he will be so convincing that, (Matthew 24:24) if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect. Few people really know from the Bible how to identify the Antichrist. The delusion is upon us. Don't be caught unaware. Know the truth. Know him for the impostor that he is. Read Who Is the Antichrist? and know the truth.

michael pearl ministry: Quiverfull Kathryn Joyce, 2009 Kathryn Joyce's fascinating introduction to the world of the patriarchy movement and Quiverfull families examines the twenty-first-century women and men who proclaim self-sacrifice and submission as model virtues of womanhood—and as modes of warfare on behalf of Christ. Here, women live within stringently enforced doctrines of wifely submission and male headship, and live by the Quiverfull philosophy of letting God give them as many children as possible so as to win the religion and culture wars through demographic means. michael pearl ministry: The Prophecy of Magog and Israel Michael Pearl, 2016-01-19 There is no cause to speculate about the coming apocalypse; it will arrive sooner or later. The Bible is quite clear on the subject. There will be an attempted invasion of Israel by a conglomerate of world powers, primarily Japhetic. That includes all of Europe, Russia, and the United States, along with Canada, Australia and more. The UN fits the bill as the leader and organizer of the invasion. Throughout my life I have heard Bible teachers say that the invading force of Magog is Russian, as seen in the names Meshech and Tubal, whom we were told were former spellings of Moscow and Tobolsk. It turns out that there is no historical basis for such an assertion. To the contrary, the invading force is composed of descendants of Magog, the grandson of Noah, assisted by Iran, Turkey, Libya, and Ethiopia. The invasion will fail because God is back in the business of preserving Israel for its coming King. Read what the Bible has to say about the invasion. I am the LORD: that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images. Behold, the former things are come to pass, and new things do I declare: before they spring forth I tell you of them (Isaiah 42:8-9). I have declared the former things from the beginning; and they went forth out of my mouth, and I shewed them; I did them suddenly, and they came to pass. I have even from the beginning declared it to thee; before it came to pass I shewed it thee: lest thou shouldest say, Mine idol hath done them, and my graven image, and my molten image, hath commanded them (Isaiah 48:3, 5). Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the people be assembled: who among them can declare this, and shew us former things? let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified: or let them hear, and say, It is truth (Isaiah 43:9).
