- Early Life and Background
- Marriage to Prophet Muhammad
- Role in Early Islam
- Legacy and Honors

Early Life and Background

Mother of the believers Khadijah was born into the noble Quraysh tribe in Mecca, a prominent and respected family known for their business acumen. Her father, Khuwaylid ibn Asad, was a wealthy merchant, and Khadijah inherited both wealth and a reputation for integrity and intelligence. Before her marriage to the Prophet Muhammad, she was already an established businesswoman, renowned for her successful trade caravans that traveled to Syria and Yemen. Her early life demonstrated her entrepreneurial spirit and leadership qualities, which later played a crucial role in supporting the nascent Muslim community.

Family and Social Status

Khadijah's family was deeply respected in Meccan society, giving her a privileged position that contributed to her influence. Her social standing was enhanced by her wealth and her reputation for honesty and fairness in business. This status allowed her to operate a large and prosperous trading enterprise, which was uncommon for women at the time. Her social and economic independence set a precedent and made her an exceptional figure in pre-Islamic Arabia.

Business Acumen

Before marrying the Prophet Muhammad, mother of the believers Khadijah was known for her shrewd business skills. She employed trustworthy agents to manage her trade caravans, including Muhammad himself before their marriage. Her business dealings were marked by transparency and success, which earned her respect across the Arabian Peninsula. This background enabled her to provide financial support to the early Muslim community when Islam began to face opposition.

Marriage to Prophet Muhammad

The marriage of mother of the believers Khadijah to the Prophet Muhammad was a pivotal moment in Islamic history. Their union was based on mutual respect, love, and partnership, which greatly influenced the early development of Islam. Khadijah was the Prophet's first wife and remained his only spouse for 25 years until her death. She provided emotional and financial support at a time when Muhammad faced significant challenges and hostility.

Marriage Proposal and Union

Impressed by Muhammad's honesty and character during a trade expedition, Khadijah proposed marriage to him, despite their age difference—she was approximately 15 years his senior. Their marriage was characterized by deep affection and mutual respect, and Khadijah's support was instrumental during the early years of Muhammad's prophetic mission. Their partnership exemplified a strong familial bond that served as a foundation for the emerging Muslim community.

Children of Khadijah and Muhammad

Mother of the believers Khadijah and the Prophet Muhammad had several children together, including both sons and daughters. Their children were:

- Qasim (their first son)
- Zainab
- Ruqayyah
- Umm Kulthum
- Fatimah
- Abdullah (also known as Tayyib and Tahir)

Though some of their children died young, Fatimah lived to marry Ali ibn Abi Talib and became one of the most important figures in Islamic history.

Role in Early Islam

Mother of the believers Khadijah played a crucial role in the early days of Islam, providing the Prophet Muhammad with unwavering support when he received his first revelations. Her faith and encouragement helped sustain the Prophet through times of doubt and persecution. Khadijah was the first person to accept Islam, making her the very first Muslim woman and a vital pillar in the foundation of the faith.

Support During Revelation

When the Prophet Muhammad received his first revelation from the angel Gabriel, it was mother of the believers Khadijah who comforted and reassured him. She believed in his mission without hesitation and offered her home as a sanctuary for prayer and reflection. Her steadfast belief gave the Prophet strength to continue delivering the message despite opposition from the Quraysh leaders.

Financial and Moral Support

Khadijah's wealth was instrumental in supporting the early Muslim community, which faced economic and social boycotts. She used her resources to assist the poor and those persecuted for their faith, demonstrating compassion and leadership. Her moral support extended beyond financial aid, as she continuously encouraged the Prophet and helped spread Islam through her own example.

Legacy and Honors

The legacy of mother of the believers Khadijah endures in Islamic tradition as a symbol of faith, courage, and generosity. She is honored not only as the first wife of the Prophet Muhammad but also as a pioneering woman who played a foundational role in the establishment of Islam. Her life continues to inspire Muslims around the world, and she is often commemorated during religious events and teachings.

Title and Recognition

In Islamic terminology, Khadijah is referred to as "Umm al-Mu'minin," which means "Mother of the Believers." This title acknowledges her elevated status and the respect she commands in the Muslim community. She is regarded as one of the four greatest women in Islam, alongside Maryam (Mary), Asiya (the wife of Pharaoh), and Fatimah (her daughter).

Influence on Muslim Women

Mother of the believers Khadijah serves as a role model for Muslim women, exemplifying strength, independence, and devotion. Her example encourages women to pursue education, engage in business, and support their communities while maintaining strong faith. Her legacy is a testament to the significant roles women have played in Islamic history.

Commemorative Practices

Muslims honor Khadijah's memory through religious education, sermons, and cultural celebrations. Her story is frequently taught in Islamic schools and is a source of inspiration during discussions of marriage, faith, and perseverance. Recognizing her contributions helps maintain a connection to the roots of Islam and the values she embodied.

Along with the Jummah prayers we have our weekly sermons. What happens is that most of us tend to forget the sermons delivered by the Imams. So I thought of this system of writing down all the sermons so that the knowledge we gain gets preserved. Furthermore the sisters who are mostly unable to attend the Jummah prayer in many countries do not get the chance to learn from the weekly sermons. The males can easily record their learning and teach the women at their home. All the sermons are from the Imams from the Masjids I attend weekly and the Hadiths mentioned are from their own sermons. Sometimes the Imams may tend to refer to weak Hadiths, I have tried my best to classify them as much as possible. May Allah have mercy upon us all and may we get guided to the Straight Path, Ameen.

mother of the believers khadijah: Methexiology Nicolas Laos, 2016-05-19 Methexiology is not a particular theory, but rather a general philosophical orientation. Therefore, in Methexiology: Philosophical Theology and Theological Philosophy for the Deification of Humanity, Nicolas Laos elucidates the significance of methexiology for the study of ontology, epistemology, ethics, philosophical psychology, theory of justice, philosophy of history, and philosophy of religion. Laos argues that, faced with the modern and the postmodern crises of meaning, we need a new myth, a new spiritual formula, for the resacralization of humanity and the cosmos, without restoring defunct totems, without using tales as cheap substitutes for the lack of a life-giving myth, and without negating history. In his Methexiology, Laos studies the genealogy of the modern and the postmodern crises of meaning, and, based on his new interpretation of classical Greek philosophy and Hesychasm, proposes methexiology as a way of overcoming the crises of meaning and as a way of resacralizing humanity and the cosmos through a new metaphysically grounded humanism.

This book is a collection of Quranic verses and Hadiths that glorify them because in love for both lies our faith. A doubt, no matter how minute, will become the cause of our failure in the Divine court. Let's strengthen our faith by remembering how magnificent, praiseworthy and grand the People of the Cloak and Companions were. People of the Cloak are like Noah's Ark and the Companions are like stars i.e. they are the guiding light for the Mohammadan umma. Sultan-ul-Ashiqeen Sultan Mohammad Najib-ur-Rehman cherishes a great love for them and teaches the same. mother of the believers khadijah: Introduction to Hadith 'Abd al-Hadi al-Fadli, Al-Shahid al-Thani, 2011-01-01 Although Hadith science can often seem inscrutable, understanding Hadith science is crucial to understanding the foundations of Islamic theology, shariah, and Islamic thought. This book outlines the history, development, and current practice of Hadith science with special attention to Shi'a scholarship. Introduction to Hadith covers hadith terminology, sources of hadith, chains of narration, categories of hadith, the criteria for hadith narrators, and transmission of hadith. Additionally, it includes a translation of a seminal work on Hadith studies, Dirayat al-Hadith, by the renowned sixteenth-century Shi'a scholar al-Shahid al-Thani – the work that paved the way for the modern Shi'a study of Hadith. For the past decade Introduction to Hadith has been designated as a textbook in Islamic studies courses worldwide. This is an essential read for anyone seeking to learn more about hadith analysis, Islamic law, Islamic history, or the Islamic scholarly heritage. Second edition mother of the believers khadijah: Queens and Prophets Emran Iqbal El-Badawi, 2022-12-01 'A genuinely paradigm-shifting work by one of the most exciting and innovative scholars in the field... compelling and powerful...' Reza Aslan Arab noblewomen of late antiquity were instrumental in shaping the history of the world. Between Rome's intervention in the Arabian Peninsula and the Arab conquests, they ruled independently, conducting trade and making war. Their power was celebrated as queen, priestess and goddess. With time some even delegated authority to the most important holy men of their age, influencing Arabian paganism, Christianity and Islam. Empress Zenobia and Queen Mavia supported bishops Paul of Samosata and Moses of Sinai. Paul was declared a heretic by the Roman church, while Moses began the process of mass Arab conversion. The teachings of these men survived under their queens, setting in motion seismic debates that fractured the early churches and laid the groundwork for the rise of Islam. In sixth-century Mecca, Lady Khadijah used her wealth and political influence to employ a younger man then marry him against the wishes of dissenting noblemen. Her husband, whose religious and political career she influenced, was the Prophet Muhammad. A landmark exploration of the legacy of female power in late antique Arabia, Queens and Prophets is a corrective that is long overdue.

mother of the believers khadijah: Sufism-The Soul of Islam Sultan ul Ashiqeen Sultan Mohammad Najib ur Rehman, 2020-10-30 Sufism is a journey. A miraculous one. Filled with hurdles yet easy for those who are born pure and those who choose. It is the choices and not always the actions as they could be deceptive. Sufism is the spiritual and mystical aspect of Islam. The esoteric cosmos has every spiritual blessing, notion and trial. In the universe of Sufism, the destination is being One with the Divine Essence (tawhid) and the dear friend and leader on this path is the spiritual guide. Motivation and power to accomplish comes from loving Allah only, as Sultan Bahoo has famously said, "Only Allah! Everything other than Allah is lust." The names Allah and Mohammad (Ism-e-Allah Zaat and Ism-e-Mohammad) are sustenance which strengthen the very soul of man. After all it is the journey of soul. Deep respect embedded in the heart for the family of Prophet Mohammad (peace be upon him) is like Noah's Arc and the sacred Companions are guiding stars. The Mohammadan Assembly is the determining factor declaring one worthy to embark on the quest of Sufism or to demote or worse to forever halt. Wolves, brigands and the negative powers that drive one away are Satan, innerself (an-nafs) and the mortal world. Sharia is the door into this esoteric world. This journey of gnosis has its own set of guidelines. These can come in the form of inspiration, unveiling, waham (inward conversation with Hoo ۞۞۞) and ilm-e-dawat (communication with sacred souls of shrines). This book is all and MORE! mother of the believers khadijah: Muslim Women and Gender Justice Dina El Omari, Juliane Hammer, Mouhanad Khorchide, 2019-09-20 This volume brings together the work of a group of Islamic studies scholars from across the globe. They discuss how past and present Muslim women have participated in the struggle for gender justice in Muslim communities and around the world. The essays demonstrate a diversity of methodological approaches, religious and secular sources, and theoretical frameworks for understanding Muslim negotiations of gender norms and practices. Part I (Concepts) puts into conversation women scholars who define Muslima theology and Islamic feminism vis-à-vis secular notions of gender diversity and discuss the deployment of the oppression of Muslim women as a hegemonic imperialist strategy. The chapters in Part II (Sources) engage with the Qur'an, hadith, and sunna as religious sources to be examined and reinterpreted in the quest for gender justice as God's will and the example of the Prophet Muhammad. In Part III (Histories), contributors search for Muslim women's agency as scholars, thinkers, and activists from the early period of Islam to the present – from Southeast Asia to North America. Representing a transnational and cross-generational conversation, this work will be a key resource to students and scholars interested in the history of Islamic feminism, Muslim women, gender justice, and Islam.

mother of the believers khadijah: Recovering the Female Voice in Islamic Scripture Georgina L. Jardim, 2016-04-08 Protest is an activity not associated with the pious and collectively-minded, but more often seen as an activity of the liberal and rebellious. Judaism, Christianity and Islam are commonly understood as paragons of submission and obedience following Abraham's example. Yet, the scriptures of all three faiths are founded in the prophets protesting wrongs in the social order. The Qur'an claims that men and women, and the relations between them are a sign from God. The question is to what extent are women silenced in the text, and do they share with men in shaping the prophetic scriptures? This book finds that far from silencing women, the Qur'an affirms the female voice as protester for justice and as questioner of Theology. In this reading of the female role in divine revelation in the Islamic text, Georgina Jardim returns to the scriptures of the Judeo-Christian counterpart of the Abrahamic faiths, to investigate whether the Bible may claim women as brokers of revelation. The result is an enriched understanding of divine communication in the Abrahamic scriptures and a commonplace for reasoning about the female voice as speaker in the Word of God.
