the last faith walkthrough: When Your Faith Choices Are Unclear Dr. Clara J. Ushman, 2024-12-24 Have you ever wondered, Who do I believe? What is truth? How do I know what I am doing is right? Many of us are not certain about a variety of our own faith questions. So what do we do about this? How are these questions to be answered? Is it simply reading more scripture? More prayers? More life experiences? Or maybe, have I already got the answers but have not recognized them in myself? Not easy questions to answer. This book will guide you, along with my experiences, to ask these exact questions. Maybe your own answers will come from this book, or you could be asking even deeper questions about yourself. Join me as we walk through several spiritual excursions.

the last faith walkthrough: God of Solution Bishop Abdul K. Kargbo, 2017-07-17 Humanity is seeking for solutions in different areas of life. Some are sick and need to be healed; some have spiritual problems and need deliverance. Some have serious financial issues, and others may just don't know what to do with their lives because it has been from one difficulty to another. The list goes on. This book is meant to reveal and inspire the human race that God has a permanent way of solving our problems. He is our creator and maker of all things. No producer will find it difficult to fix his product no matter how damaging it may be. There are different sources of solution, but God's means of solution is the best and most reliable. Man may help you with selfish motives, and even the solution may not be as dependable as God's. God has need of us. That's why he created us. He gave us salvation as a free gift by sacrificing his only son. Once we received this great salvation in Christ Jesus, then we may consequently be a candidate for divine solution in every other area of our life: healing, deliverance, restoration, and all-around breakthroughs. After salvation, God wishes above all things that we prosper and be in good health (3 John 1:2). We can't receive a godly solution to the problems of life until we surrender to God. We ought to show him that we are ready to serve him, and the change we need will be possible. For with God, nothing is impossible!

the last faith walkthrough: Monumental Jesus Margaret M. Grubiak, 2020-02-11 The American landscape is host to numerous works of religious architecture, sometimes questionable in taste and large, if not titanic, in scale. In her lively study of satire and religious architecture, Margaret Grubiak challenges how we typically view such sites by shifting the focus from believers to doubters, and from producers to consumers. Grubiak considers an array of sacred architectural constructions—from Touchdown Jesus at the University of Notre Dame to the Wizard of Oz Mormon temple outside Washington D.C. to the renamed Gumby Jesus of the Christ of the Ozarks statue in Eureka Springs, Arkansas - and how such constructions are confronted by the doubt and dismissiveness articulated by the more skeptical of their viewers. These responses of doubt activate our religious built environment in ways unanticipated but illuminating, asking us, at times forcefully, to consider and clarify what it is we believe. Opening up new avenues of thinking about how people deal with theological questions in the vernacular, Grubiak's book shows how religious doubt is made manifest in the humorous, satirical, blasphemous, and popular culture responses to religious architecture and image in modern America. the last faith walkthrough: Talitha Cumi: Near Death Cecilia Tetteh, King Tetteh, 2021-09-28 Life is full of untold stories. A perfect life is suddenly thrown into a ditch and the question that ensued is: 'How did we get here'? In Talitha Cumi: Near death, Pastor King and First Lady Cecilia Tetteh recounts how tares were sown in their beautiful lives, leading to the near death of Cecilia and how God gave her a chance to life. The account in this book though riveting, is not meant to exalt any man but to give glory to the Heavenly Father and teach Christians on the benefits of totally depending on God. 'Call to Me, and I will answer you, and show you great and mighty things, which you do not know.' (Jeremiah 33:3, NKJV). A call unto God is prayer. It is not just the muttering of words; but a spiritual communication with a father who loves and care for his own. It is our prayer that this book will change a destiny and make a believer more dedicated to the things of God. Lessons in this book include endurance, faith, love, testimonies, wisdom, victory, miracles, signs and wonders. A family without love can be shattered by an adversity beyond description. We breathe life because God answered us. This is the first of a two series book based on a true story about deliverance from the spirit of envy and jealousy. The book showcases an unexpected tragedy, diagnosis, loss and great disappointment, burden and unimaginable tiredness which drew a family closer to God. The book is a memorial in honor of great appreciation for God Almighty and showcases His awesomeness for His children.
